

drift is spiritually lethal, those caught in its wide and lazy current seldom catch on that their total cognitive set is becoming increasingly impaired. (Such drift is not noticeable inside one's own boat!) And at long last the very cognitive tolerance required to entertain even the Gospel outline is gone. The good news is that there is grace for such cognitive and spiritual drift whenever we set before ourselves our risen and reigning Lord.